

Maintenance Contract „Software Update“

This contract ensures that your software remains up to date, with all important features and security updates being installed regularly. You can rely on your machine running optimally and benefiting from the latest improvements and features.

The maintenance contract guarantees that your system continues to operate reliably and efficiently in the long term, without you having to worry about updates.

„Software Update“

Includes:

- Software update: 1 x per year